HELP FOR HOMESCHOOLING THE STRUGGLING LEARNER

A One-Day Seminar
Saturday, January 28, 2012
Waterdown, ON

- Is homeschooling your child not as easy as you had anticipated?
- Do you have a child that struggles to learn?
- Have you tried a number of phonics programs and your child still finds reading a struggle?
- Does a new math concept cause your student to have a meltdown?

If these and other learning issues plague your homeschool experience why not plan to attend this full day seminar? Come and learn some new teaching strategies, see some exciting curriculum options, and find out how you can help your struggling learner.
